ANNUAL MEETING EDITION

May - June - July 2004

DISTURBANCE IN NATURAL ECOSYSTEMS

The 2004 Annual Meeting will be in Steamboat Springs in the Olympian Hall of the Howelsen Hill Lodge. The theme of the meeting is how natural disturbances affect ecosystems. The national forests near Steamboat Springs offer several examples of disturbances, including the forest blowdown of 1997, the fires of 2002 and mountain pine beetle infestations.

A preliminary agenda is presented in this issue (page 2) and a registration form is included as an insert. Please complete the registration form and mail back by September 1. Karen Vail is coordinating the annual meeting and can be contacted at 970-870-9565 for more information or to volunteer.

LODGING: 20 rooms have been reserved for September 17 and 18 at the Rabbit Ears Motel, 970-879-1150. Mention CONPS. Rates are $65/night for 2 people (one queen bed), $59 for single, $89 for 2 queens and 1 king for up to four people. Pets accepted for $12. Continental breakfast, pass to the Health and Recreation center across the street with pool, hot springs, weight rooms. Sheraton Resorts, 970-879-2220, $99 per night with spa, restaurants, health club, game room, retail shopping.

CAMPING: KOA Campground, 888-4510-2243. Book early. RV with water and electricity, $29/night plus tax for 2 people, each additional person $2.50. Full hookup, $35/night with extra fee per person. Tent sites, $24/night for two people, and $2.50 for each extra person. Forest Service campsites are nearby. Call 970-879-1870 for more information.

SILENT AUCTION: The second annual Silent Auction will be conducted, since last year's auction raised over $400. Donations should be related to native plants. Members, businesses and organizations are encouraged to participate. Contact Pat Ploegsma, 303-622-9439, pploegsma@yahoo.com, to let her know what items will be donated. Items can be brought to the annual meeting or mailed to Pat.

Suggested items include the following:

- Books (new, old, out of print, etc.)
- Botanical art, photographs, posters
- Native plants and seeds
- Notecards
- Botanical CDs
- Other items related to native plants

Pat is moving out of state and will not be at the annual meeting. Volunteers are needed to administer the Silent Auction. If you are interested and available, please contact Pat as soon as possible.

MERCHANDISE SALES: The Annual Meeting is the biggest sales event for the Society. We carry over 80 titles -- from floras to ecology to gardening with native plants. Six volunteers are needed at the sales desk during the meeting. Volunteers are also needed to transport books and merchandise to Steamboat Springs from Denver. If you can help, please call April Wasson at 303-763-7679 or email apriladw@earthlink.net.

ELECTION FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS: The Board of Directors is soliciting nominations for five director positions. Contact Vice-President Dave Anderson (970-484-0774 or dgan-der@lamar.colostate.edu) with nominations. Nominations are due by August 15. (See Page 5 for more information.)

Boulder County Nature Association Field Ecology Classes

The Boulder County Nature Association offers summer field ecology classes. There may be space in the following classes.

Bats of Boulder County: Dr. Rick Adams

Come learn about the natural history of these enigmatic mammals by delving into their ecology, physiology, morphology, and behavior. In addition, we will see bats "up close and personal" while conducting fieldwork.

Friday, August 6, 6:30-9 p.m., indoor class

Saturday, August 7, 7-11 p.m., field class

Tuition: $45 ($35 for BCNA members). To register contact Lauren Golten, 303-477-7131; lauren.golten@colorado.edu.

The class is currently full, but we are still accepting names for the short waiting list: Contact Lauren Golten at 303-477-7131; Lauren.Golten@Colorado.edu.

Geology of the Colorado Front Range: Paula Hansley

Colorado is blessed with an amazing variety of well-exposed geologic features! We will get a feel for geologic time while exploring sedimentary formations spanning more than 500 million years.

Thursday, September 9, 7-9 p.m., indoor class, Foothills Nature Center.

Saturday, September 11, 8 a.m.-1 p.m., field session along the trail through the sedimentary geologic section in the Boulder area
Saturday, September 18, 8 a.m.-noon, field session to examine foothills igneous and metamorphic rocks, along with coal mines, Valmont Dike, pediment surfaces, and faults.

Tuition: $70 ($60 for BCNA members). To register contact Paula at 720-890-2628; hansleyp@att.net

SPEAKER NEEDED

Denver Botanic Gardens is soliciting a speaker to give a presentation on fall native plant planting. If interested, contact Debbie Whittaker, Public Programs Manager, Denver Botanic Gardens, 720.865.3608, whittakd@botanicgardens.org

Nominees for Board of Directors David G. Anderson

It is time once again to elect six directors to the board of the Colorado Native Plant Society. You will be receiving a ballot shortly that you can either mail in or bring with you to the annual meeting.

As your Vice-President, I am the official headhunter for the CONPS board. We still need a few more dedicated members to run for a director's seat, so I would love to hear from you regarding potential candidates. You can suggest people that I should approach, or if you are interested in running, all the better!

Here is the basic description of a director's duties:

- * Terms are for two years.
- * Directors meet approximately four times a year (September-May) for three hours on Saturday mornings in Longmont. The last meeting of the year is usually held on the West Slope and often includes a field trip.
- * Directors are encouraged to participate in a committee or to become an officer.
- * Board meetings are fun and are a great chance to get to know other members of Colorado's botanical community and to participate in running the Society you love.
- * Doughnuts are provided.

You can contact me by email, dgander@lamar.colostate.edu, or at home, 970-484-0774, to begin your candidacy, to suggest potential candidates, or to ask any questions about participating in the Board of Directors. If you would like to run for a seat, you can email me a short (4 or 5 sentences) biography to put on the ballot, describing your background and interests. The deadline to receive nominations is August 15.

Metro Denver Chapter has new President

The Metro Denver Chapter announces that Naomi Nigro has accepted the position of Chapter President. "I am looking forward to working with the chapter members as well as the CONPS Board of Directors," said Naomi. Members can contact Naomi at 303-366-6033 and naomi4CoNPS@hotmail.com.

The Board of Directors thanks outgoing Chapter President Rita Berberian for her dedication, and especially for her work in organizing the 2003 Annual Meeting in Denver. "We wish Rita well on her sabbatical and hope to work with her in other ways in the future," said CONPS President Jill Handwerk.

AQUILEGIA DEADLINE - SEPT. 15

Submit contributions for Vol. 28, No. 4 by Sept. 15, 2004. Articles less than 1000 words are especially welcome. Previously published articles submitted for reprinting require permission. Submit via e-mail or on disks as an MS Word or rtf document. See page 7 for additional information.

August 21 Field trip to Missionary Ridge Burn, Columbine Ranger District, San Juan National Forest, La Plata County, Colorado

Trip Leaders: Mark Tucker and Sandy Friedley

The Missionary Ridge Burn above Durango, Colorado occurred in summer of 2002. We will have the opportunity to explore a small portion of the burn area. Unfortunately, many roads into the area are still closed as of the spring of 2004. We will meet at 9 AM at the San Juan Public Lands Office, 15 Burnett Court, Durango, Colorado. If the Missionary Ridge Road is open to the public, we will head up Forest Service Road 682. Should the road not be open, we will head up one of the many trails north of Durango. Please contact Sandy at (970) 884-9245 for additional details.

September 18

A trip is tentatively planned to investigate the mushrooms of the San Juans. The trip will be only available if seasonal moisture provides us the opportunity. Call Sandy at (970) 884-9245 if interested in attending.
